

Pacific Gas and Electric Company <sup>TM</sup>

---

Date:: 7/8/2013
PG&E Request No. 2013070816

PG&E's Notice of Disclosure of Information

Pursuant to D. 11-07-056, issued by the California Public Utilities Commission, a utility is required to take certain actions prior to the disclosure of covered information. "Covered information" is defined as electrical or gas usage information when associated with any information that can reasonably be used to identify an individual, family, household, or residence, or non-residential customer, except that covered information does not include electrical or gas usage information from which identifying information has been removed such that an individual, family, household, or residence or non-residential customer cannot reasonably be identified or re-identified.

Unless otherwise prohibited by court order, law, or order of the Commission, a covered entity, upon receipt of a subpoena for disclosure of covered information pursuant to legal process, shall, prior to complying, notify the customer in writing and allow the customer 7 days to appear and contest the claim of the person or entity seeking disclosure.

Consequently, if you oppose the disclosure of the information being sought in Attachment A through this legal process, an order should be obtained from the court to prevent the disclosure of such information. Any action taken to suppress the disclosure of this information should be faxed to (415) 973-5531 attention Subpoena Desk. If such action is taken, PG&E will await the outcome of such legal process before producing the requested records unless directed otherwise by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If you have also received a Notice to Consumer pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure (generally Section 1985.3), and there is a conflict between the disclosure dates set forth on that form and the 7 day notice period referenced herein, the documents will not be produced until the later of those two dates.